Every English major is required to meet with a faculty advisor to review major requirements and design a preliminary plan of study. A final plan of study, which must be approved by the advisor and the department, shall be submitted online no later than the fourth class week in the semester of intended graduation. Only courses taken at UCONN may be used to meet the major and related course requirements; exceptions require special permission.

Regional Campus students: As soon as possible after declaring as an English major, consult with your major advisor about the semesters in which courses on your plan will be offered.

To satisfy the English major, the student must present for the degree ten 2000-level, or above, three-credit courses in this department distributed as set forth below. A single course may satisfy more than one requirement, when course content warrants. Enter courses taken as appropriate to requirements.

A. Introduction to Literary Studies: 2600 (3 credits):
   This course should be taken within a semester of declaring the major or at its next offering:

B. Literary History (9 credits): One course from group 1, one course from group 2, and one course from group 3:
   1) British Literature: 2100, 3111/W
      3113/W
   2) American Literature: 2201/W, 3210
      3218/W
   3) Anglophone & Postcolonial Literature: 2301/W
      3120
      3219

C. Genre (3 credits) One course from the following: 2401, 2405, 2407, 2408, 2409

D. Major Author (3 credits) One course from the following: 3501, 3503, 3505, 3507, 3509

E. Advanced Study (3 credits) One course from the following:
   These courses satisfy the departmental requirements for Writing in the Major and Informational Literacy:

F. Elective courses (9 credits) In addition to courses used to satisfy requirements A-E above, nine credits must be chosen from English courses numbered 2000 or above.
   Course numbers used to satisfy requirements A-E may be used toward satisfaction of requirement F only when they designate a second or third section of a course repeated for credit with a change of topic.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENT

At least two courses in the major must concern literature written before 1800. Courses applied toward categories B-F may also apply toward this requirement. Courses satisfying this requirement are: 2100, 3111, 3113, 3115, 3301, 3495, 3501, 3503, 3505, 3507, 4965W

RELATED COURSE REQUIREMENT

No fewer than 12 credits in non-English courses numbered 2000 or above, none taken on a pass-fail basis, approved as representing a coherent area of study related to English. The student should identify below the academic coherence envisioned among courses listed in this category (particularly if the courses belong to more than one department).
