

WE ARE THE WRITING MINOR

The Writing Minor encourages students to refine their writing abilities across diverse contexts and technologies.

It highlights practices, histories, and theories of writing across the disciplines.

The Writing Minor currently offers over 75 different courses spanning more than 30 departments/programs and 4 colleges/schools: the College of Agriculture, Health, and Natural Resources; the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences; the School of Business; and the School of Engineering.

The Minor has only one required course, either the Introduction to Writing Studies or Writing through Research, and students are welcome to choose four others from over 75 options.

Students may petition to include other courses which focus on the theory and practice of writing. Contact information can be found on our website.
